

Fur Trade Crossroads:

Trailing the Mountain Men through Utah

Wednesday, March 6th

6:00 p.m.

65 East 200 South, Springville

Free presentation open to the public

Jay H. Buckley is an associate professor of history at Brigham Young University where he teaches U.S., American West, and American Indian history courses. Buckley's specialties include Lewis and Clark, exploration and emigration, the fur trade, Indian-white relations and other western themes. He is the author of the award-winning book William Clark: Indian Diplomat. He is co-author of By His Own Hand? The Mysterious Death of Meriwether Lewis. His current book projects include: "A Fur Trade History of the Great Plains and Canadian Prairies" and "Great Plains Forts."

