

Surviving WWII & Escaping The Iron Curtain

Presentation by Peter G. Czerny

Wednesday, October 2nd 6:00PM

65 East 200 South, Springville

Pete Czerny was a toddler during WWII when his family found themselves in Communist East Germany. Their home was destroyed and their family of seven (children aged 2-12) escaped East Germany and traveled to Utah. By age twelve, Pete and his family had been refugees three times! Come listen to Pete's story. Free and open to the public.
